Laser and Nutritional Therapies

The latest techniques for healing the brain and spinal cord

Sponsored by LZR7: Laser Extravaganza

Presented by John W. Brimhall, BS, BA, DC, FIAMA, DIBAK, XYMOGEN Director of Educational Development

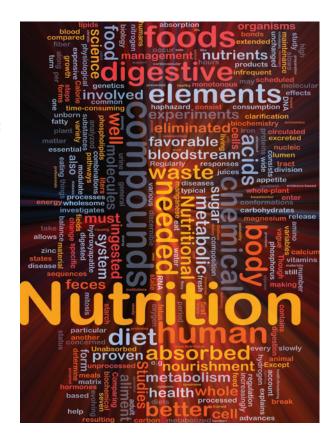

Topics to be Discussed:

- » Why Dr. Brimhall chooses XYMOGEN nutrition for maximum patient nutritional support
- » What specific nutrition to use for specific conditions, e.g., back pain, inflammation, weight loss, detoxification, methylation, digestion, immune support...
- » How to use XYMOGEN's top-of-the-line dietary supplements for blood sugar regulation and insulin metabolism, including the next generation carb blocker
- » Mentoring in miracles—how to get better results with almost any case history
- » Why there are so many thyroid problems and the breakthrough with toxic halogen detoxification
- » Glucose dysregulation—causes, treatment, and answers for thousands, including structural, visceral, laser, and nutritional support
- » Craniosacral balance—what used to take a highly trained professional one hour now takes one to two minutes
- » Solutions for the temporomandibular joint (TMJ) problems that underlie many structural subluxations, fixations, and symptomatic expressions
- » Fascial faults (energy cysts) that cause recurring subluxations, headaches, frozen shoulders, migraines, chronic pain, female complaints, and prostate problems
- » The one connection to balancing the central nervous system, the peripheral nervous system, and the autonomic nervous system
- » Heavy metals and other toxins that sabotage your results and patients' health
